

Dr. Celeste R. Didlick-Davis
JD, MS, CFLE

President Middletown Unit
NAACP#3194

CEO, 3 R Development, Inc.

Founder & CEO 3 R Development, Inc.; Reaching Reclaiming and Restoring Citizens through Individual and Corporate Development; Middletown, Ohio www.3RDevelopment.org

Consulting Firm for Small Businesses and Not for Profit Corporations

3 R Development's Mission Statement is Helping People To Help Themselves.

Outreach program for Families of Incarcerated Persons, Ex-Offenders, Displaced Persons, and Youth

Published Author co-author (2012), Organizing to End the School-to-Prison Pipeline: A Document Analysis of Grassroots Organizing Campaigns and Policy Solutions.

Reentry Experiences of Formerly Incarcerated Females: Personal Perspectives from Females Returning Home (2015).

Faculty- Family Science and Social Work & Integrated Studies Departments, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio specializing in Family Poverty, Child Development in Diverse Families, Family Systems Theories, Family Stressors, Social Research, Socio-Cultural Foundations of Education, Cultural Competency, Social Research Methods, and Critical Thinking. Developed Healthy Relationships Community Workshop-community based class focusing on healthy boundaries and relationship stressors.

President Middletown Unit NAACP#3194

Ordained Clergy & Associate New Era Baptist Church, Middletown Ohio

Member of numerous boards and community Organizations

Bachelor of Arts in History and African American Studies, Princeton University,

Juris Doctorate, Cornell University School of Law

Masters of Science Family Studies and Social Work, Miami University

Ph. D Educational Leadership, Miami University